

Redbird FMX Pricing

Advance purchase of hours in the Redbird FMX simulator is available to SFEC customers. Simulator hours are good for one year from date of purchase. With the purchase of simulator hours, you will receive your own SFEC pilot key (thumb drive), which will be loaded with the number of hours you've purchased and will automatically expire when you run out of hours or within one year, whichever happens first.

Number of Hours	Price
1 Hour	$70.00/hr
5-9 Hours	$60.00/hr
10-19 Hours	$50.00/hr
20 or More Hours	$40.00/hr

Simulator Introduction Flight

An introduction to the Redbird FMX Simulator can be purchased for $50/package. This introduction provided by an instructor includes an overview of the simulator and demonstration of its capabilities. This fun filled adventure also includes actual time in the simulator and at least two landings and a demonstration of in-flight motion of the simulator.

Flight Instructor Pricing

Flight instruction is available through Scott City Aviation in both the simulator as well as actual aircraft. Prices do not include additional fees for hours in the simulator or aircraft rental. For aircraft rental rates and availability, contact Scott City Aviation or go to www.scottcityairport.com.
